With the fifth generation fast approaching, it's a prime time to take a step back and relive all the generations once again.

And what's the best way to do that? With a tournament of course! What tournament? Well, obviously the Antiquity Regional tournament!

The ATQ Regionals tournament is actually a collection of four smaller tournaments, each corresponding to one of the current generations in pokemon.

All four of these will be the OU of each generation, and will be decided in one match, as opposed to the usual best-of-three.

Of course, no competition is right without a reward. And the ATQ regionals have a reward for you. If you do manage to win in a specific generation, you'll be crowned king of that generation, and you'll get a badge to wear on the ATQ forums! So you can show off to all your friends about how good you were at RBY, or GSC, and talk about how you 6-0'd some guy with a Crocune. Fun, no?

To join, simply visit the forums, find the thread and say you're in. Simple as that. Aim high, get badges, hate hax. What more could you ask for?
